SENIOR MEDICAL OFFICER

Bega Garnbirringu Health Services (Bega) is currently seeking expressions of interest from suitably qualified and experienced candidates with a proven track record in clinical management to fill the role of Senior Medical Officer.

Bega is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation based in Kalgoorlie. We are committed to providing culturally appropriate and sustainable holistic health care services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people across the Goldfields region. Bega is renowned as an employer of choice due to our positive work environment and very attractive terms and conditions. These include a 35-hour week, salary sacrifice options and ongoing professional development opportunities.

The Senior Medical Officer is a key leadership role reporting to the Manager Primary Health. The core function is to provide medical leadership of clinic General Practitioners, including staff performance management and workforce coordination. Working closely with senior management, the Senior Medical Officer will contribute to clinical governance and provide medical care to clients of Bega Garnbirringu Health Service. It is expected that you will be an exemplary leader who provides guidance, mentoring and coaching to all general practitioner and other clinical staff in the pursuit of maintaining a workplace culture that is free from unhealthy behaviours.

To be considered for this role, you will have at least five (5) years' experience in community GP practice (post fellowship), an Aboriginal Primary Health or similar setting. Your experience will also include development, implementation, change management and evaluation of complex service delivery systems or an equivalent combination of education, training and experience to fulfil this requirement. A deep and empathetic understanding of issues affecting Aboriginal people and a genuine passion for Aboriginal health is vital to your success in this role.

A highly attractive remuneration package, commensurate with experience and seniority of the role, will be offered to the successful candidate.

If you believe you are up for the challenge and possess the appropriate skill set, please submit a covering letter addressing the essential selection criteria and tell us why you are the best candidate for this exciting position.

A detailed position description is available on our website www.bega.org.au or can be requested via email recruitment@bega.org.au or by calling the Human Resource Officer on 08 9022 5500.

Aboriginal applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
