Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
COVID-19 Vaccine Provider Communication Kit

Web content

Find here wording that you are able to use on your website or social media pages.

We are a vaccination provider

[Provider Practice/Clinic name] is an approved vaccination provider for the COVID-19 vaccines. We are happy to help provide COVID-19 immunisation for our local community. Our health professionals have all completed the mandatory training to ensure that our patients will receive the best standard of care.

Booking your COVID-19 vaccination appointment

When it is your turn to get vaccinated, you can call us on [Provider phone number] to book your appointments.

You can also book on our website online [link to practice/clinic website], give us a call [insert practice/clinic phone number], or come in to the [practice/clinic].

Each vaccine needs two doses, each taken several weeks apart. You can book your second appointment after your first vaccination – your healthcare worker will be able to tell you how many weeks you will need to wait.

How to prepare for your COVID-19 vaccination

Before your vaccination appointment, you should make sure your details are up to date with Medicare. You can find information about how you can do this on the Services Australia website.

You can also read this patient factsheet developed by the Australian Government Department of Health: https://www.health.gov.au/resources/publications/covid-19-vaccination-preparing-for-covid-19-vaccination

COVID-19 VACCINATION

Safe. Effective. Free.

health.gov.au/covid19-vaccines

Please do not go to your vaccination appointment:

- if you are feeling unwell with fever, cough, runny nose or other symptoms that could be from COVID-19

- if you are waiting for COVID-19 test results, or have tested positive for COVID-19

- if you are a close contact of someone with COVID-19, or

- if you are in quarantine.

If you have had another vaccine in the 14 days before your COVID-19 vaccine appointment, please let us know as we may need to reschedule your appointment.

If you cannot make it to your vaccination appointment, please contact us to arrange