CTG Report 2022: Request for Case Studies

The Lowitja Institute are seeking input from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander individuals, communities and organisations for potential features to be included in the Close the Gap 2022 Report.

Please complete the below criteria and send to Banok.rind@lowitja.org.au by Friday 19th November.

As decided at the CTG Indigenous Leadership Group meeting on 26 August and by the Campaign Co-chairs, the 2022 Report will take a strengths-based approach to explore themes of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander led transformation; Gender Justice: Equality and Equity; and Allyship.

We are seeking case studies that demonstrate strengths-based approaches that are either led or in partnership with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and/or organisations in the design or delivery of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander led transformation, Gender Justice: Equality and Equity and Allyship in line with current affairs.

Case studies will be shortlisted with final decision by the Lowitja Institute Project Team and Project Reference Group.

Successful case studies will be contacted, and interviews scheduled between 23rd November – 10th December. Interviews will be conducted via video conference or phone.

Due to time limitations, we are asking for the below criteria to be completed and returned:

Name of program and/ or service
Brief description (please include web link or leaflet, if available)
How does this link to the theme or sub-categories?
Location (State)
Contact name and details
Respected Community Champion name and contact (if known)
Nominator name and details
